The Linked Leadership Council (LLC) continues to work to promote the model of linked parishes under the direction of Bishop David M. O'Connell and the Diocese of Trenton's Planning Commission. The goal of linking parishes through The Catholic Community of Hopewell Valley is to strengthen and energize all Catholics in our area, sharing resources, time and talent across our parishes. The hope is that parishioners at St. Alphonsus, St. George and St. James will see and have a greater opportunity to participate in activities or services of interest to them. Additionally, the linked parish model broadens our pool of talent, concerns and volunteerism, giving us greater strength and effect in our ability to attract families and individuals to us as one Catholic family.

The LLC implementation team is broken down into four subcommittees: Linked Faith Formation, Linked Evangelization, Linked Social Concerns/Justice and Linked Communications. In May, we concluded our first year of implementation of the Linkage Model of our Catholic Community of Hopewell Valley. Each year, we are required to submit to the Bishop a review of the previous year's goals, along with future plans for the next year. We are in the process of finalizing those calendars now. The highlights of the goals and the achievements of this past year, along with future plans, include:

The Linked Leadership Council subcommittees welcome ideas and input from all parishioners. As Father Mike says, "It is all about relationship, so each of us have to get involved. Because we are part of Linked parishes, it is a good time to step up and prayerfully consider in your spiritual life, what are ways you are called to get involved in helping make the Catholic Community of Hopewell Valley stronger for you, your family, your friends and community. Let us all start to engage with one another!"
